Dainty Trousseau Sets

Composed of four matched pieces each. We're telling here of two special sets, very specially priced—but can make up complete matched sets in some of the prettiest and finest underwear in regular stock.

$7.50 Set of Fine Long Cloth—elaborately trimmed with wide Val. lace.

Chemise Gown—Has deep round yoke of insertion and Cluny beading, ribbon finished. Short ribbon and lace trimmed sleeves.

Skirt—Has 21-inch flounce, with broad band of fine tucks and hemstitching. Three bands of insertion, and deep lace ruffle.

Corset Cover—Made full with deep round yoke front and back, of lace and ribbon drawn beading.

Drawers—Have full flounce headed with tucks, and trimmed with lace and insertion.

$10.00 Same style set of finer materials—Lace used being beautifully designed Normandy Valenciennes.

ENTICINGLY PRICED UNDERMUSLINS

WHITE harbingers of Spring days—these lovely, lacey garments. They set every one planning, buying, making ready. A sensible, saving pleasure, for it is now generally conceded by practical women that it does not pay to make underwear, or hire it made. To think of the time spent in planning, and collecting materials is enough, without counting the hours of toil—hours most women need for a hundred other things. Then there is the added cost when a seamstress does the work. How much simpler to spend a pleasant hour in our cheery Muslin Underwear Room, selecting your very ideals from piles of beautiful garments—finished, all ready to put on—less all the fuss and extra expense. For the cost is wonderfully light, and the garments fine as if you made them yourself. You see the manufacturers vie continually in making goods nearer and nearer to home-work, for nicety; and as we accept only the refined productions of the very best makers, there's no chance of your buying anything but delightfully-satisfactory garments at this store. Of course we lay greater stress on this February sale than on any later selling. We get the very finest goods for it, at the very lowest possible prices—give you values now that may not be duplicated again this season, when the supply is exhausted. This makes present buying imperative if you would get the very richest choosing.
